

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

(Romans 5:6-8)

Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

(Romans 5:9-11)

"Almighty Redeemer, have you by your grace transferred us out of the kingdom of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your beloved Son?"

"Have you (God) called us into fellowship with Jesus Christ and brought us near to yourself by His blood, even though by nature we were estranged from you?"

"Then may you receive all the glory! Lord Jesus, when the devil, like a well-armed strong man, guarded his fortress in our hearts so that his goods were peacefully secured, you came against him as one who was stronger than he. You took away all the defensive armor in which he trusted, and divided up the plunder as you wished. Not to us, O Lord, but to your name we give all the glory!"

(Matthew Henry)

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?

(Romans 8:31-32)

Who shall bring any charge against God's elect?
It is God who justifies. 34 Who is to condemn?
Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?
37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

(Romans 8:33-37)
